Press Release

Sad Robot

Opening 21 Feb 2009 @ 2pm SL Time

Location: <http://slurl.com/secondlife/Shadow%20Dominion/99/225/28>

Sad Robot is the new art space/gallery for artist, Klink Epsilon.

Since 2007 Klink has shown his work at a number of galleries and exhibitions throughout Second Life, including several pieces created specifically for the mixed reality project Brooklyn is Watching.

During this time he has continued to develop and expand and his artistic interests and now feels ready to launch the Sad Robot gallery as a permanent space to house his work.

Sad Robot is born.

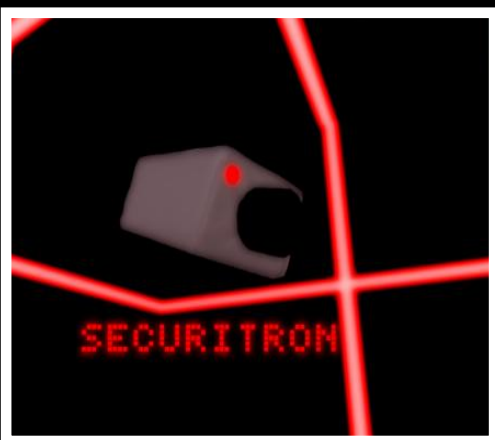

Visitors will find a foyer containing an archive of Klink's previous sculptures and displays with some new creations.

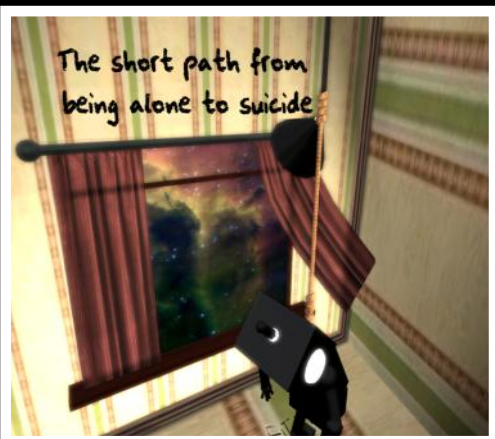

Klink has created 3 new installations for visitors to explore:

Healthcare Trauma – Political piece exploring the current state of US medical healthcare.

Securatron - A piece exploring the feeling of surveillance within a virtual space.

The Short Path from Being Alone to Suicide - A personal piece which looks at the artist's past and personal struggles as a young man.
